[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN]

The Civil Service Order to Officeholders

New York, April 23 —Relative to the order to officeholders the president in a recent interview said the executive order was designed to let faithful officers understand that their first allegiance is to the government and to its interests and not to parties. That is now very generally understood but as to contributing a reasonable share of their means to meet the expenses of the campaign there can be no objection, whether any officer may give or not, as he pleases, without affecting his term of office. As to personal participation of federal officers in the campaign there can and will be no objection to this unless they are used to promote personal interests of certain individuals through manipulation of patronage and management of party machinery. After candidates are fairly in the field without the aid of conventions packed with officeholders acting at the beck of the dominant clique of politicians there will be no objections if federal officeholders do their share of work so long as it does not interfere with their federal duties

The Walk Against O'Leary's Time.

Harry Hill's protege is far behind O Leary's time, and is losing heart, with no hope of success.

Democratic Plan to Win

The Times' Cincinnati special says the Sandusky Register of to morrow will contain the following story: We have from the best authority undoubted information that Randall, speaker of the house, has written to leading Ohio Democrats that it is of the utmost importance to the Democratic party that the Ohio legislature should redistrict the state Randall gives as a reason that indications point to Republican success in carrying the next house unless some effort of the kind is made by Democrats where they have the power.

Terrible Rain and Thunder Storm.

Macon, April 23 —At 9 o clock last night a terrible rain and thunder storm set in, which continued through the night The planting interests have suffered severely from the unprecedented rains of the past week

Cairo, Ill., April 23 —A severe storm of wind this morning unroofed several houses in various portions of the city.

The Indian Raiders.

San Antonio, Texas, April 23 —Indian raiders near Laredo have crossed into Mexico with about 600 head of horses and some other stock. Mexican troops and citizens are in pursuit. The Indians are trying to reach the mountains on the border of Chihuahua but will probably be captured The mail carrier between Fort Davis was killed by Indian raiders from Fort Sill and Fort Vanton reservations. Three citizens were killed by a band of the same raiders, about the same time, 15 miles west of Davis.

Still Raiding.

Corpus Christi, Texas, April 23 —All the ranches in Duvall and Falls counties have been broken up by Indian and Mexican raiders. A number of persons have been killed the past week. Six have been reported.

The Ex-President of the Late C. S. A.

Jefferson Davis, before leaving this city was complimented with a grand military review on Canal Street. About five thousand troops of all arms were in line. Mr Davis was mounted and in full uniform.

Dispatches of Sympathy.

New York, April 23.—At the meeting of the Western Union directors to day dispatches of sympathy and condolence were read from D. O. Mills, president of the Bank of California, of San Francisco, Gen Stager vice president of the company at Chicago, Hon. E. Duff, of Boston, Senator Conkling, Henry Weaver, general manager of the Cable in London, and others from different parts of the country.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Strike of Cotton Operatives.

London, April 23 —The resolution adopted by the amalgamated association Sunday has met considerable opposition throughout the strike district. It is now stated it was not unanimously passed, that 18 delegates from north and northeast Lancashire were not at the vote. Operatives at Accrington held a meeting and resolved that they would not comply with the recommendation of the association, although willing to accept 5 per cent. reduction and 4 days work per week. Operatives at Burnley, at a meeting at which 1,000 were present, resolved to continue the strike. At Preston an excited meeting lasting two and a half hours was held without decision, some approving and others condemning the resolution of the amalgamated association. At Blackburn the operatives were very bitter and declare they will withdraw from the association.

London, April 23 —A telegram from Manchester says it is calculated that there are between 80,000 and 90,000 operatives on a strike in Lancashire, about 64 000 being weavers. Part of the mills were open this morning so that operatives could commence work if they chose, but none in the strike resumed. A mass meeting of operatives numbering 7 000 was held at Burnley this morning. A resolution was adopted to the effect that they should return to work until notices of reduction were withdrawn. A small minority opposed the motion and proposed a compromise

Diaz Recognized.

City of Mexico, April 17 —Minister Foster officially announced the recognition of the Diaz government by the United States on the 9th inst. President Diaz received Mr Foster officially on the 10th, and much cordiality of feeling was manifested on both sides.

Dissatisfied Journals.

Lerdo journals denounce the Mexican government for having, as they charge, accepted recognition with insulting language from Secretary Evarts.

The church newspaper La Bandera Nacional, is more bitter against the United States than ever, and does not want peace on any terms.

That section of the government press which supports Minister Vallarte claims that the recognition of President Diaz by the United States is a great diplomatic triumph of Senor Vallarte over Mr Evarts.

La Libertad says Mexico has obtained the recognition by the tact and shrewdness of Vallarte without yielding any point to American pretensions. The Death of Mr. Wm. Orton.

Washington, April 23 —The unexpected and sudden death of William Orton occasions profound regret especially among those with whom he has been officially associated. Mr Orton's office hours were from 9.30 A M to 4 30 P M and his labor during those hours was incessant and intense. His knowledge of telegraphy was prodigious and he understood most of the new improvements and inventions in construction and application. Resolutions of respect from Pacific coast telegraphers were received by the Western Union directors to day

Pacific Coast Appropriations

The river and harbor appropriation bill as passed to day contains the following items for Pacific coast improvements: Oakland $80,000, Wilmington $25,000, Sacramento and Feather rivers, $15 000, Lower Willamette and Columbia rivers $30 000, Upper Willamette, $20 000, Upper Columbia and Snake, $20 000. Canal around Columbia cascades $75 000. The bill also contains provisions—heretofore mentioned as agreed on by a committee—for survey of various points with a view to future appropriation for improvements

A Bill to Change Election Day

Representative Wigginton to day introduced a bill changing the time for the election of California members of the next congress from next November as required by the general law to the day of holding the state election in September 1879. He says it costs California nearly a quarter of a million dollars to hold each election and as one for the constitutional convention takes place in June the State would be subjected to this heavy expenditure twice in the same year if election only for congressmen be held next November. It is expected, however that the California constitution will be amended so as to make the state elections hereafter coincide with the elections of congressmen and president. The bill was referred to the committee on elections which have leave to report at any time. It will be supported by the California delegation unanimously. Wigginton says he does not anticipate any opposition to it from the Workingmen's party, as its passage would give them time to organize and develop any strength which the people may come to the conclusion they are entitled to wield.

Urging Action on the Chinese Question.

With the exception of Jones and Sharon, who were absent all the Pacific coast delegation in congress have signed a paper requesting the house committee on education and labor to press to its passage the joint resolution already reported from that committee providing for negotiations with China and England to resist Chinese immigration and also to report for passage the bill introduced by Wren which is a duplicate of Sargent's bill providing that not more than ten Mongolians shall be admitted by any one vessel. The delegation recommend as an alternative measure for adoption by the committee Davis bill, which proposes to allow free entry of one Chinaman for each one hundred tons of the vessel's capacity and to collect one hundred dollars capitation tax for all in excess of this limitation

Novel Land Bills

Wigginton to day introduced two very novel and important land bills which are likely to give rise to considerable discussion, but which after full examination he thinks will be ultimately passed. They provide for placing pasture lands which though arid are irrigable under the control of homestead settlers on somewhat the same principle former ly applied to placer mines. The first bill deals with all lands in portions of the United States where irrigation is necessary to agriculture, excepting mineral and timber lands, and excepting also all tracts of not less than 320 acres which can be redeemed by irrigation by means of accessible water not otherwise utilized or claimed. Any nine or more persons entitled to the homestead privilege are to be allowed to organize a pasture district comprising a continuous tract of such lands of value for pasturage purposes only not exceeding 2,560 acres for each person. The organization is to be made under regular rules prescribed by the interior department and no one person's tract shall be entitled to a greater amount of water than is sufficient for reclamation and culture of 20 acres nor shall the tract be selected in such manner along a stream as to monopolize a greater amount. Title is to be acquired upon compliance with the general homestead requirements and various special conditions as to filing declarations, obtaining surveys, etc

Damaging Testimony.

New York, April 23 —The World's Washington special says Testimony of a very damaging character was given by G Wiley Wells, ex consul general at Shanghae, before the committee on expenditures in the state department to day against George F Seward minister to Peking. It is said Seward will either be suspended by the state department or given leave of absence to come before the committee to explain the charges

Mrs. Wilson Reappointed.

Washington, April 23 —Among the postmasters nominated by the president to day was Mrs Elizabeth M. Wilson The Dalles Oregon.

The Sinking Fund Bill in the House.

The house judiciary committee to day decided by a majority of one vote, to move a reference of Thurman's Pacific railroad fund ing bill to that committee when the measure is taken from the speaker's table for the action of the house. An attempt will be made however, to pass the bill without reference

The McGarrahan Case.

Although the reception of testimony in the McGarrahan investigation was formally closed last Saturday the senate public lands committee to day allowed the introduction of some additional documentary evidence, consisting of supreme court records

The Dignity of the House.

Washington April 23 —The whole day in the house was wasted in wranglings and speeches concerning a protest presented by Cox and signed by about thirty members, against the passage of the river and harbor appropriation bills, which had already been passed. The proceedings during the greater part of five hours were disgracefully trivial disorderly and boisterous. The house finally ended the matter by a vote of ... four to one refusing to allow the protest to be entered on the journal

Finally the house decided 101 to 8 that Cox might proceed and he did so. Conger interrupting but the speaker ruled that the objection was not well grounded

Hale then submitted whether this was a question of privilege and Reagan defended the committee and declared he would not quit ... to permit assaults on the committee of commerce. All bills of the character of the river and harbor bill had passed under suspension of the rules for sixteen years. He reminded Cox that this was peculiarly a workingman's bill. It gave them occupation and reduced the expenses of consumers. The committee had considered it most carefully had heard every member who chose to come before it. Had cut down from millions to hundreds of thousands and some who had demanded millions for certain interests before the committee now ... the bill on account of extravagance

Cox disclaimed any intention to reflect on the committee but claimed this bill ... of legislation should be reformed. This bill proposed surveys of rivers which for the most part were not worth a dam. The only means of making them a thoroughfare was to macadamize them

Ellis said he was one of the men Reagan condemned. He had asked of the committee on commerce an appropriation for the harbor of New Orleans and they had voted $50,000 for it and given large sums to a Pennsylvania river of no importance. The river was Kiskiminitas.

White said it was an important tributary to the Alleghany penetrating through the oil regions and was very important

Wright of Pennsylvania asked White where the Connemaugh river or trout stream was

White retorted that his colleague aspiring as he did for the chief executive office of Pennsylvania ought to know its geography better or else not aspire

Wright answering the question by White said these rivers were new names to him (Loud laughter and great disorder)

White said these were old historical streams navigable 200 rods wide, and his colleague would lose his wind in swimming them. He had advocated the appropriation and was proud of it

Bridges asked if at low water a person could not step across them

White denied it indignantly and said Bridges ought to know something about the great oil region of Pennsylvania

Bridges said he did

Ellis resuming said neither Wright Bridges nor the speaker ever heard of these rivers

Hamilton being accused of having voted to rush through last year's bill and of protesting against it said he was grossly deceived last year and would never take the faith of a committee for a bill again

Wright and White again became involved in a warm wrangle over the size of the mountain streams and gradually approaching each other amid uproar and confusion they waved books in each others faces making motions to throw them and continued their ludicrous pantomime to the entertainment of their noisy auditors who kept unbounded disorder for two hours, when the speaker submitted the question of entertaining the protest to the house and the house decided by 130 to ... that the paper did not in itself present a question of privilege and refused to enter it on the journal as a matter of courtesy to those who presented it

Sparks, from the appropriation committee reported the Indian appropriation bill referred to committee of the whole Adjourned

Severe on Beecher.

[From the New York Times Editorial 16th]

On the evidence submitted at the trial of Beecher, the Times reached the conclusion that he was guilty of the charge brought against him. Since that time we have seen no reason to change the opinion then recorded, though we should have shared the satisfaction of all right minded people in finding sufficient grounds to believe in Beecher's innocence. The Times proclaimed the guilt of Beecher on other grounds than the confession and retraction of Mrs Tilton. The card from her which we publish to-day does not therefore strengthen the case against him as it has been regarded in these columns. It is worthless as a legal evidence, however strongly it may confirm the moral presumption of Beecher's guilt. This weak and erring woman has so hopelessly forsworn herself as to forfeit all claim to attention or credence. Her letter will however be effectual in reviewing the whole disgusting controversy—in liberating once more the moral contagion of which it has been the fruitful source and in lending to the odious gang who traded on their knowledge of Beecher's guilt a species of vindication which may lead people to forget their meanness and duplicity. As for Beecher he remains the impure and prejudiced man which any natural construction of his own letters proved him to be. That fact deprives Beecher's rejoinder to Mrs Tilton's latest confession of any title to consideration

The Beecher-Tilton Scandal

[New York Tribune Editorial 16th.]

Mrs Tilton's letter will be read with emotions of sorrow, pity, amazement and disgust. Beecher had made enough admissions to damn a dozen other preachers yet the jury could not convict and his congregation would not abandon him. Tilton had compromised himself by writing in terms of affection to men whom he accused of outraging his domestic sanctuary yet thousands believed him. And Mrs. Tilton—what story has she not told about this mystery? What hideous and impossible thing has she not done. The letter of Mrs Tilton is like all the literature of scandal, somewhat overstrained in language and spasmodic in general tone but in one particular at least it bears the appearance of sincerity. Whatever we may think of this amazing woman whichever of her many contradictory statements we may take to be lies, there can be no doubt that she has lived seven or eight years of cruel anguish. It is impossible to think of her past without mercy of her future with out compassion. No matter who may have been the chief sinner she has been the chief victim and there is no possibility of the ... of her peace, happiness and good name

The Indian government was ... press but ... the natives of India ... of a station ... their country by right of conquest. This is a subject on which a free native press would certainly have had much to say. Just now however we are concerned to know where these troops are about to be put. The native troops are preparing to come but where they will be landed is a ministerial secret. At Calcutta it is given out that their destination is Malta and it may be but if so where are the troops going who are already there. Malta is full and the only inference which can be drawn is that in the plan of the government by the time the Indian regiments arrive a destination at present unknown, will be found either for them or for the corps they will displace. It is quite as likely these troops will be landed at some Turkish port, as that they will go to Malta

THE CONKLING INTERVIEW

Of the interview said to have been held recently by a reporter with Senator Conkling and published in the New York World the following statements are made. Much of the matter agrees with what has been quoted from Conkling by his friends and some of its expressions are familiar but many of the details are inaccurate and the interviewer often misses the known spirit and intent of the senator. In private circles it is well known that Conkling has made no secret of the fact that he desired to preserve no relations with the administration and had no respect for it. There can be no question that the reporter had substantial foundation for much of his report. We give the following additional passage

You think Senator that the President is wholly in the hands of Southern Democrats? I am sure of it. There has been no reform under Hayes not ever in the civil service. His last appointments were the worst ever made. If Hayes should send in a message on civil service reform, a list of some of these appointments will be published and it will make such an astounding commentary upon the President's works as would discredit it ... concern ... ... Further on in the interview the correspondent asked Do you see no hope of bringing the President in accord with the Republican leaders

I must confess that I have ceased to have any expectation of it. No opportunity for harmonizing matters is given by the president. In my opinion it is not possible to speak in too extreme a manner of this administration. Look at its usurpation of power in Ohio. It openly dictates the election of a United States senator. In order to do this it bargains with the man to whom the succession properly belongs to step out of the way promising to use its influence—the influence of the army of officeholders and their positions—to make him speaker of the house. The people don't stop to think what this act really means. A president who holds the veto power of legislation promises to interfere in legislation and control its course by dictating who shall be speaker of the house of representatives. Fancy a sovereign of England trying any such game with the house of commons. There would be such an uprising as there has not been since Charles I lost his head. Yet the people are strangely quiet and say that Hayes is a good man and means well. At this very moment he is at tempting to place all the power in the hands of his personal friends. If Grant had ever attempted any such usurpation of authority the whole country would have condemned him and he might not have escaped impeachment

The South and Slavery.

[From the Vicksburg Herald (Dem.)]

In the years in the past when there was slavery in the south little or no effort was put forward to secure the means of advancement and progress. We contented ourselves with buying slaves and then using them to the best advantage to enable us to buy more slaves. A person possessed of one or two families of healthy negroes became rich by the natural increase of his slaves if he managed to keep out of debt and pay his taxes. With the end of the war we entered upon a new era. While we labored under many disadvantages it cannot be denied that we were possessed of many advantages. Slavery was a good thing for those who were fortunate enough to own slaves but it cannot be denied that it was a bad thing for the state. Illinois and Mississippi entered the Union at about the same time, yet Illinois is to day ten times as wealthy and prosperous as Mississippi. Why is this the case? It is the result of the enervating influence of the institution of slavery. This comparison could be made between all the southern states and the north ern states. Slavery was the Old Man of the Sea. We are rid of him now and the future is in our hands

AN OLD GREELEY EDITORIAL

SHOWING HOW LONG THE RUSSO ENGLISH TROUBLE HAS BEEN BREEDING

The following is an extract from an editorial in Horace Greeley's New Yorker of March 1839

"It is only since the virtual subjugation of Turkey and Persia to the giant power of the northern colossus that England has felt any serious apprehensions for the safety of her oriental possessions. But the complete prostration of the Ottoman power by the last war and the peace of Adrianople the grasping conditions imposed in the treaty by Russia the further exactions especially with regard to the passage of the Dardanelles and the navigation of the Euxine secretly at that time imposed ... the defection from its allegiance of the pasha of Egypt the vastly important alienation of Persia from the interests of England and her present close alliance with Russia and finally the constant and ... extension of power by Russia especially on her southeastern frontier have impressed upon the British nation particularly upon those who have a deep interest in the preservation of her Indian empire a vivid sense of impending ... formidable danger. We shall not attempt ... to judge of the reality ... of the danger. We prefer to ... rather than indulge in speculation

WEDNESDAY MORNING APRIL 24 1878

NEW MOVEMENTS

There is immense rush from all quarters for lands in Minnesota and Northern Dakota. Since spring opened the flood of immigration which was but barely checked by winter starts anew and with redoubled energy. Even during the later months of winter it was prodigious and for the season unprecedented. The report of lands sold in Western Minnesota and Northern Dakota for three months ending with the close of March shows a total of 1,200,000 acres. The offices of the land departments of the various railroads are crowded constantly with applicants for lands and the land offices of the government report a rush which is equally without precedent. All the railroads running out toward the west have been obliged to add largely to their rolling stock and especially to their passenger cars and also to increase greatly their train service in order to accommodate the crowds of land hunters and settlers pouring into the new districts. Last year the entire sales of land by the Northern Pacific company were 270,996 acres. The present year up to March 31st, embracing three winter months, a season not favorable for movements to new settlements, the sales reached 119,300 acres and later reports, as the spring opens, show a largely increased inquiry. The St Paul and Pacific railroad company is doing a corresponding business in lands, and the government land offices much more. For the last seven months the lands actually disposed of in that region by the United States and the railroad companies aggregate 2,550,000 acres. The immigration generally is reported to be of superior character, the dominant nationalities being Americans, Scandinavians and Canadians, in about equal numbers.

With our own superior climate and other advantages we shall see an equal movement throughout the entire northwest just as soon as we secure a through line of communication which will enable population to reach us. As fast as the road is built a land getting and land tilling population will follow it, or rather, if they see it is to be built, great numbers will occupy the country in advance of it. Already settlements are extended beyond the terminus of the Northern Pacific at Bismarck, and Gen Miles, in a report to the war department, remarks that the occupation of the Yellowstone valley has divided the Indian country in twain, and virtually settled the vexed Indian question of that region. On the Pacific slope settlers are pushing into the new country north of Snake river, in anticipation of construction of the road, and it cannot be long until there is an avenue of communication entirely across the continent. This will anticipate the completion of the road, but a great influx of population cannot take place till the through line of railway transportation is secured.

Inasmuch as the northwest is now looking with interest for everything that offers encouragement for the Northern Pacific, upon which enterprise it seems to be conceded that the future of the northwest largely depends, a comparative statement of increase of traffic upon it for the first three months of 1878, as compared with the same period of last year, will be timely as affording an indication of the growing resources of the company. On the Minnesota and Dakota divisions of the road the earnings for the first three months of 1877 were $78,717 16, and for the first three months of 1878, $139,319 47. The gain is about 77 per cent. It will be steady, now that the country is filling with inhabitants and large business is assured. The comparative statement of the number of passengers carried is quite as significant. For the first three months of 1878 the number was 10,746, against only 4,298 for the corresponding period of 1877.

These are some of the facts which give reason to hope that extension of the land grant will enable the company to push the construction of the road. Applications for lands from the mouth of Snake river eastward are already large enough to justify expectation of resources sufficient to assist greatly in the construction of an important section of road in that quarter.

PORTENTOUS STRUGGLE

In Union county the campaign has opened with a vigor that rather surpasses anything manifested elsewhere. Among the Democratic brethren of that county there is, we are sorry to say, internecine war. The party is convulsed with a struggle of rival candidates for the office of county clerk. The contestants are Messrs Outhouse and McComas. Impressed with the importance of preventing a rupture in the party, a circumstance that might be attended with results which would carry dismay to the hearts of all who look to the Union Democracy as the hope of the country, McComas, who is editor of the Sentinel, and feels therefore that a heavy responsibility rests on him as a guardian of the integrity of the party, proposes to Outhouse that they shall settle the whole difficulty by allowing a direct vote on their names at the primary, the one receiving the highest number of votes to be acknowledged the victor and receive the homage and allegiance of the other. Now as politics usually go this looks fair. But Outhouse considers the proposition a delusion and a snare. He will not play with his adversary at the said adversary's own game. He fears the proposal is made with intent to deceive. The overture is therefore rejected, and a deadly struggle is imminent with disastrous consequences to the fortunes of the party. The correspondence between the contestants is in the Union county papers. It looks as if pacification were impossible. Shall the great historic party be rent asunder by the rivalry of its champions? Is there no authority able to command the ambitious madmen to desist?

AMENDED AND PASSED

With addition of certain further amendments the bill to extend the time for construction of the Northern Pacific road passed the senate yesterday. It would appear that the bill in its progress got away from Senator Mitchell entirely. What the object was in adding an amendment distinctly declaring that nothing in the act shall be construed as recognizing the existence of the Portland Salt Lake and South Pass Railroad Company or any right of said company outside of Oregon is not apparent unless it be intended as notice that the body which passes this bill thinks little of the Oregon senator's labor[illegible] ... [illegible] that the Northern Pacific shall not be embarrassed by Jay Gould. From the action [illegible] the senate [illegible] the present bill [illegible] utterly impossible it has all along been for Mitchell to do anything [illegible] posed. But of course he never expected [illegible] The object was to obstruct the N[illegible] [illegible]

The two important points gained over Mitchell in relation to the Northern Pacific is the cutting loose of the Salt Lake grant from the Northern Pacific bill and such modification as will give the company control of the lands granted for the road. These points are vital. It never would have been possible to build any road on Mitchell's vagaries. He stood in the way as long as possible and only yielded when he could obstruct progress no longer. Now let Eastern Oregon take notice that he is exhibiting no part of the earnestness in behalf of the Salt Lake grant which he displayed during all the time he was employing it as a means to load down the Northern Pacific.

A Washington letter to the Chicago Tribune says that after the judiciary committee's bill passed Jay Gould and Libby left the capitol crestfallen but in splendid equipage while old Edmunds and old Thurman in their rusty clothes walked down the steps of the capitol and took a street car for home, paying five cent fares.

Still the endless McGarrahan case. Agents of the press should be warned against trifling with the public patience by promising any further new phases of it. If there be any new feature to the tremendous bore it is a safe prediction that it is more tiresome than the old one and the public would none of it.

Among the bills which should not be neglected by our delegation at Washington is the one authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Willamette at Portland. This bill was offered a good while ago by the great introducer but nothing has since been heard of it. It should be hurried up.

Isaac Cox of Jackson is making speeches at the X Roads. He proposes to abolish national banks, issue plenty of greenbacks, taboo gold and silver, and break up both the old parties. Cox is an ex member of the Oregon legislature, and we are inclined to think he can do all this if any man can.

The Interest Account

SALEM, April 23 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I am not a champion of Gov Grover's administration but believe that in his arraignment he should be fairly dealt with, especially in view of his absence and consequent inability to make his own defense. Hence referring to the last paragraph but one of Taxpayer's communication in yesterday's OREGONIAN I do not think he states the case fairly in that he ignores the accrued interest on the item $265,779 45, which at 1½ years, which I think is about a fair average to the time of payment, would amount to something over $38,000—making the deficiency of Wood's administration nearly $56,000—instead of $1[illegible] 450 69 as stated by Taxpayer.

FAIRPLAY

A Pointed Open Letter.

APRIL 20 1878

To the Recent Democratic State Convention: The 4th resolution of your platform declares against perquisites and extra compensation of officers.

Your candidates for state treasurer and state printer are remarkable specimens of this fruitful source of corruption which your said resolution denounces. Their official conduct is in direct contradiction of the doctrine of your resolution and would seem to have been nominated to give it the lie. The candidate for treasurer has on a salary of $800 per year made more than that many thousands per annum, and the candidate for printer as printing expert, is directly chargeable with the enormous plunder in the state printing of the last four years. Now what should the Democratic voters who mean to be honest, do?—support these candidates and dishonor this resolution or oppose the candidates and support the resolution? The resolution is good, the candidates are bad. To support the one we must oppose the other. Which shall we choose?

DEMOCRAT

He Might have been Mistaken

[From the Washington Post]

The Hon Zachariah Chandler, when asked whether he really believed that Hayes had 185 votes and was elected, when he caused that alarming intelligence to be promulgated by magnetic telegraph, replied that he did; but added that he might have been mistaken, as there is no certainty in anything that Hayes is concerned in.

CITY.

GROWING [illegible]—A friend from Oregon City informs us that matters in that burg have [illegible] considerably of late and that [illegible] session there for the [illegible] this week [illegible] habit of [illegible] ning the man [illegible] ment of a convivial bo[illegible] with them when character [illegible] a little too boisterous one of the [illegible] he would do a and the [illegible] his fun and so little business [illegible] the obstreperous youth attempted to [illegible] and the watchman. A [illegible] the resisting individual [illegible] the latter drew a pistol [illegible] at the official who in and fired [illegible] he [illegible] out another [illegible] came near shot was [illegible] effect, the ball cutting the taking [illegible] drawing blood from his sleeve [illegible] The parties were not arm near the [illegible] the shooting but the man arrested who [illegible] were after them. Another [illegible] of the [illegible] pistol was investigated alleged assault with [illegible] the latter part of last in the inferior [illegible] the accused held to answer before week and the [illegible] It grew out of the action of the grand [illegible] threw kisses at the young a young man who [illegible] gentleman. The husband wife of an elderly [illegible] in question was informed of the of the lady [illegible] gallant and borrow conduct of the youthful [illegible] for the supposed would ing an old [illegible] of his domestic happiness. The be disturber [illegible] showed fight and the husband young man [illegible] out his shooting iron and threatened to perforate the carcass of his antagonist. The latter concluded to slope and did so to the office of the squire, where he entered a complaint culminating in the examination and holding to answer of the old gentleman as aforesaid, although we learn that it was proved that the accused knew the pistol would not go off, and had stated that he didn't want to hurt anybody but only desired to give the young fellow a scare. It may be an expensive scare to him or the county or to both.

CELESTIALS IN TROUBLE—In the account published in THE OREGONIAN a few days ago about the attempt which was made to assassinate the Rev Dong Gong by several of his countrymen it was stated that these parties were known to belong to the Moy Luke faction. A sharp look out was kept by the police officers for these offenders but they laid so low that nothing positive could be ascertained as to their identity. Monday night three Chinamen named respectively, Ah Bong, Ah Jim and Ah Horn became involved in a personal row, during which they grew so noisy that two of the police officers marched in and took the trio off to the city jail, where a charge of disorderly by fighting was preferred by the arresting officers. The defendants furnished the required bonds and were released. Yesterday the case came up before Judge Adams for trial. Meantime it leaked out that the defendants were the identical fellows who assaulted Dong Gong. With this knowledge the court very properly concluded to fine them as heavily as the law would permit under the circumstances. Each defendant was fined $20 on the charge preferred. Ah Bong was also fined $10 on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. The defendants paid the fines imposed and were discharged.

PETROLEUM DISCOVERY—Mr. E. A. Woodruff writing from Oregon City under date of 22d inst. sends the following: "I observe by your notice of our petroleum discovery that you labor under a slight mistake as to its locality. It is situated about two miles above the falls at the confluence of the Willamette and Tualatin rivers, upon land belonging to Mr Hayes but not upon his farm, that being five miles distant. Also it is not a muddy spring. It was discovered in digging a ditch to drain the land, the ditch at this point being about four feet deep. Our attention was attracted to it by the gas arising and the oil floating and passing off upon the water. We have since dug out several feet square to ascertain the direction of what we supposed to be a lead or vein, and find that it is almost a complete circle about four feet across, forming a well defined well of sand, which in color is a greenish blue and quite free from water when the drain water is turned off, but smooth or slippery from the oil it contains. We have procured an auger and will commence boring down the well of sand to-day, and I think will have an opportunity of sending you a sample soon."

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT—From the Walla Walla Watchman the following paragraph is clipped: "Col John Wilson of the civil engineer corps, U S A, entertained our citizens last Wednesday evening at Science Hall, by reading a paper on locks and canals. It was a well prepared document and indeed highly interesting, especially where he referred to our own beloved home, the Columbia river, its usefulness and its obstructions. He thinks they can and will be overcome, and that before another decade of years roll by ships will traverse from the mouth of Snake river clear through to the ocean. At the conclusion a vote of thanks was tendered to the colonel by the audience."

THE NEW ENGINE HOUSE—Monday evening the committee on fire and water opened the bids for the construction of a new engine house for Willamette Engine Co No 1. The following is a list of the competitors, together with their respective bids: Smith & Bristol, $7,500; Higgins & Drummond, $7,356; R. Porter, $6,825; J M Caywood, $7,325; W S Hann, $7,300; G F Tribou, $6,985; Richardson & Warren, $7,134; J Cummings, $7,315; J S Therklesen, $7,445; Wm Braden, $7,848. Robert Porter having made the lowest bid, has been awarded the contract.

INACCURACIES.—In the published report of the proceedings of the school meeting in yesterday's issue a slight typographical mistake appeared. A 3 mill tax was voted for ordinary school purposes, and a 1½ mill tax for the purchase of the block recommended by the committee, and also toward the proposed school building to be erected. The type made us say a 1½ mill tax. The committee made a mistake in stating the locality of the block—No 223. This block is bounded by Madison, Jefferson, West Park and Eighth streets.

TOUR OF INSPECTION—Mr H S Wheeler, superintendent of construction in the engineer department of the 13th lighthouse district, returned Monday evening from a tour of inspection over on the Sound. Mr Wheeler was absent about two weeks, and during that time he visited all the light stations and fog signals in that part of the district. He reports having found everything in excellent condition.

MAKE YOUR RETURNS—We are requested by the secretary of the Young Men's Catholic Association to state that it is very desirable to have all persons to whom the sale of tickets was entrusted for the recent entertainment make returns to the committee at McCormick's book store. The committee is anxious to settle up all the accounts and prompt returns will greatly expedite matters.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION—Mr Geo W Weidler, agent of the Oregon Steamship Co, announces that the new steamship Oregon will be open for public inspection to-day from 1 P M to 5 o'clock. The steamer has been thoroughly cleaned up and will present the finest possible appearance. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to visit the Oregon and inspect her.

[illegible] a few [illegible] ago April has been a very moral month and police business [illegible] But since Sunday matters in that [illegible] picked up at a lively rate. [illegible] 101 arrests have been made. Yesterday [illegible] fines collected in city case [illegible] Not a bad showing [illegible]

MAIL CONTRACT—[illegible] In an exchange we observe that Mr J T Miller, [illegible] uncle Jake of [illegible] has recently been awarded the contract for carrying the mail from Colfax [illegible] Territory. The Walla Walla [illegible] says Mr Miller will [illegible] after [illegible]

TIME OF SAILING—The O S S Co's new and magnificent steamer [illegible] is advertised to sail from this port for San Francisco at [illegible] urday morning at 4 o'clock.

CITY.

GROWING LIVELIER.—A friend from Oregon City informs us that matters in that burg have "enlivened up" considerably of late and that some little business has been made for the circuit court which is in session there this week. A few nights ago the town watch man who is in the habit of joining the "boys" in social enjoyments of a convivial character was indulging with them when one of the boys became a little too boisterous and the watchman thought he would do a little business while having his fun and so attempted to arrest the obstreperous youth. A companion interfered and the watchman warmed off and knocked the resisting n h first down, whereat the latter drew a pistol and fired three shots at the official who in stantly fled, and as he lit out another shot was sent after him which came near doing serious effect the ball cutting the sleeve of his coat and drawing blood from his arm near the shoulder The parties were n t arrested who did the shooting but the min ions of the law were after them Another alleged assault with a pistol was investigated by the inferior court the latter part of last week and the accused held to answer before the grand jury It grew out of the action of a young man who threw kisses at the young wife of an elderly gentleman The husband of the lady in question was informed of the conduct of the youthful gallant and borrow ing an old pistol went for the supposed would be disturber of his domestic happiness The young man showed fight and the husband "wilted" out his shooting iron and threat ened to perforate the carcass of his antago nist. The latter concluded to slope and did so. In the office of the "squire, where he en tered a complaint culminating in the exam ination and holding to answer of the old gentleman as aforesaid, although we learn that it was proved that the accused knew the pistol would not go off, and had stated that he didn't want to hurt anybody, but only wanted to give the young fellow a scare It seemed to be an expensive scare to him or the party, or to both.

CHINAMEN IN TROUBLE.—In the account published in THE OREGONIAN a few days ago of the attempt which was made to assas sinate the Rev. Dong Gong by several of his countrymen, it was stated that these parties were known to belong to the Moy Luke fac tion. A sharp look out was kept by the city officers for these offenders, but they "lay so low" that nothing positive could be ascertained as to their identity Sunday night three Chinamen named re spectively Ah Bong, Ah Jim and Ah Horn became involved in a personal row, during which they grew so noisy that two of the police officers marched in and took the trio to the city jail, where a charge of dis orderly fighting was preferred by the ar resting officers. The defendants furnished the required bonds and were released Yes terday the case came up before Judge Adams In the meantime it leaked out that the Chinamen were the identical fellows who as saulted Dong Gong. With this knowledge the court very properly concluded to fine them as heavily as the law would permit un der the circumstances. Each defendant was mulcted on the charge preferred Ah Bong was fined $10 on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. The defendants paid the amount and were discharged.

A VALUABLE DISCOVERY.—Mr. E. A. Wood writing from Oregon City under date of April 22 says the following: "I observe by your notice of our petroleum discovery that the writer is under a slight mistake as to its lo cation. It is situated about two miles above the falls at the confluence of the Willamette and Tualatin rivers, upon land belonging to Mr Hare, but not upon his farm, that being on the other island. Also it is not a muddy ditch. It was discovered in digging a ditch to drain the land, the ditch at this point being about four feet deep. Our attention was at tracted to it by the gas arising and the oil rising and passing off upon the water We have since dug out several feet square to as certain the direction of what we supposed to be a bird or vein, and find that it is almost a complete circle about four feet across, forming a well-defined wall of sand, which in color is a perfect blue and quite free from water when the drain water is turned off but the earth is slippery from the oil it contains. I have secured an auger and will com mence boring down the well of sand to day, and I think will have an opportunity of sending you a sample soon."

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—From the Walla Walla Watchman the following paragraph is taken: "Col. John Wilson, of the civil en gineer corps, U. S. A., entertained our citi zens Wednesday evening at Science Hall, with a lecture upon locks and canals. It was a well-prepared document and indeed everything in it, especially where he refer red to his beloved home, the Columbia river and its obstructions. He thinks they can and will be overcome, and that before another decade of years roll by steamers will traverse from the mouth of Snake river through to the ocean. A the con clusion a vote of thanks was tendered to the speaker by the audience."

A NEW ENGINE HOUSE.—Monday evening the committee on fire and water opened the bids for the construction of a new engine house for Willamette Engine Co No 1 The following is a list of the competitors, together with their respective bids: Smith & Bristol, $6,500; Kinney & Drummond, $7,306, R Pryor, $7,168; Caywood, $7,325 W S Wyatt; G. F. Tribou, $6,985; Richard son & Bowen, $7,134; J. Cummings, $7,315 P. Dougherty, $7,445, Wm. Braden, $7,348 Reed Foster, having made the lowest bid, was awarded the contract

A CORRECTION.—In the published report of the proceedings of the school meeting in yes terday's paper a slight typographical mistake occurred. A 5 mill tax was voted for ordi nary school purposes, and a 1½ mill tax for the purchase of the block recommended by the committee, and also toward the proposed school building to be erected. The type made it a 1½ mill tax. The committee made a mistake in stating the locality of the block— Block 168. This block is bounded by Madison and Jefferson, West Park and Eighth streets.

RETURN OF INSPECTOR.—Mr H S. Wheeler superintendent of construction in the en gineer department of the 13th lighthouse dis trict, returned Monday evening from a tour of inspection over on the Sound Mr Wheeler was absent about two weeks, and during that time he visited all the light sta tions and fog signals in that part of the dis trict. He reports having found everything in excellent condition.

MAKE YOUR RETURNS.—We are requested by the secretary of the Young Men s Catholic Association to state that it is very desirable to have all persons to whom the sale of tick ets was entrusted for the recent entertainment make their returns to the committee at McCor mick's book store. The committee is anxious to settle up all the accounts and prompt re turns will greatly expedite matters

OPEN FOR INSPECTION.—Mr. Geo W Weid ler, agent of the Oregon Steamship Co, an nounces that the new steamship Oregon will be open for public inspection to day from 1 P. M. till five o'clock. The steamer has been thoroughly cleaned up and will present the best possible appearance. A cordial invita tion is extended to the public to visit the Oregon and inspect her.

"PICKING UP."—Until a few days ago April has been a very moral month and police busi ness has been light. But since Sunday mat ters in that direction have "picked up" at a lively rate. Thus far 101 arrests have been made. Yesterday the fines collected in city court aggregated the sum of $90 Not a bad showing for one day

MAIL CONTRACT AWARDED.—By an exchange we observe that Mr J. T. Miller (Uncle Jake) of Portland, has recently been award ed the contract for carrying the mail from Colfax to Colville in Eastern Washington Territory. The Walla Walla Statesman says Mr. Miller will hereafter reside in that city

TIME OF SAILING.—The O. S. S. Co s new and magnificent steamer Oregon is announced to sail from this port for San Francisco at eight o'clock Friday morning at 4 o clock.

THE SOCIABLE.—The lady committee who had charge of the arrangements have good reason to feel elated over the success of their efforts The basement of the Congregational church was comfortably filled on the occasion of the seventh sociable which occurred last evening Of the most attractive features may be noted Cinderella in three scenes the participants comprising about twenty little children Prof Schwabe s performance on the piano was it is needless to say par excel lence and elicited loud applause The jubilee singers were really good and at once reminded many of the famous Tennesseeans They were warmly applauded An unlimited number of young ladies gaily attired distribu ted refreshments and flowers through the an dience and were liberally patronized The receipts will scarcely fall short of seventy dollars

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL.—At this insti tution there are at present fifteen patients the greater portion of whom have been obliged to seek and within its walls through having met with accidents There has been great need of good roads to the hospital and from what we can learn a movement is on foot looking to an improvement in this par ticular The accommodations at the hospital are first class and with good facilities for reaching the place patients friends of pa tients and visitors may be afforded a chance to find their way to its rooms, which are al ways open Mr George Boyd assisted by Mrs Cornelius look carefully after the wants of those coming under their notice

FIRE ALARM.—About half past 9 o clock last evening an alarm of fire was struck from box No 8 located at the corner of Fourth and Morrison streets Our efficient department was on hand with the usual promptness but the alarm proving a false one the several companies had the satisfaction of returning to their respective engine houses after a long and fatiguing run There appears to have been some mystery as to how the alarm box was opened, or rather how the key which was found in it got there

FOR J P.—Our old journalistic friend William A Daly, announces himself as a candidate for justice of the peace for Morrison precinct subject to the will of the voters of that precinct Mr Daly if elected, will no doubt make a competent and efficient officer

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY.—Two lads named respectively Keith and Clem, were arrested yesterday in Police Court charged with lar ceny The defendants will have a trial be fore Judge Adams to day

AMUSEMENTS.

COMIC BURLETTA.—This (Wednesday) even ing the comic burletta entitled 'From Port land to Paris' written by R C White Esq will be produced for the first time in this city at New Market theater This play has been judiciously cast and carefully rehearsed and there is every reason to predict that it will be presented in a very satisfactory and credita ble manner The prominent characters of the piece will be personated by Mr White Miss Rena, Miss Addie Rodgers M J B Robipson, Mr L F Howard and Mr Wil liams, which is a sufficient guaranty that the parts have been entrusted to competent and experienced hands Several new and attract ive scenes have been painted by Mr White, among which may be mentioned a view of New Market block, New Market theater Pal ace Hotel and Lotta Fountain in San Fran cisco The play is very cleverly constructed relieved at agreeable intervals by good situa tions and abounding in sparkling dialogues If properly and effectively rendered the play can not fail to attract and please the public The proceeds will be applied toward defray ing the expenses of shipping the Oregon ex hibit to Paris We bespeak a crowded house

GRAND CONCERT.—Next Saturday evening a grand concert will be given in this city for the purpose of raising funds with which to defray the expenses of a delegation of singers to the musical festival to be given at the Me chanics Pavilion in San Francisco in May Nightly rehearsals have been held during the past week at the rooms of the Amateur Mu sical Society under the personal direction of Mr W H Kinross The forthcoming con cert will be, no doubt, the most important musical event of the season In the pro gramme we notice the Hallelujah chorus of Handel the Inflammatus of Rossini solos by Miss Flora Abraham, Miss Miller of Oregon City Miss Stump and Mr Kinross, piano solo by Miss Rosenheim the celebrated Anvil Chorus, with the anvils beaten by members of the fire department, and a male chorus by forty voices—in fact a juvenile Boston Jubilee The sale of reserved seats commences this morning at the music rooms of Mr Morse We understand there is a great de mand for them, and advise our readers to see to it early

HEBREW BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

[illegible] afternoon the annual meeting of the members of the Hebrew Benevolent Society was held when the following officers were elected President L Fleischner Vice President I H Lewis Recording Secretary Ichiel Blum Fi nancial Secretary Joseph Jacobson Treas rer Charles Fleischner Sol Hirsch and [illegible] were elected Trustees The f[illegible] [illegible] holdover B Goldsmith [illegible] Wasserman [illegible] W[illegible] for twenty [illegible] above were re elected The society is reported to be in a very prosperous condition [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] GENTLEMEN I have the honor to present to you my annual report [illegible] workings and condition of our society during the past year [illegible] [illegible] than any previous year in [illegible] of the history of our organization [illegible]

It is gratifying to be able to state that from an ler of ours [illegible] society has applied [illegible] in [illegible]

During the year just closed [illegible] large number of people [illegible] California. Several [illegible] have visited Portland and many of them landing [illegible] almost penniless and requiring immediate relief

A number of cases have come under my personal observation where within [illegible] after the Cali fornia steamer had arrived the [illegible] trustee were besieged by destitute co religionists seeking for pecuniary aid

It is gratifying to me to be able to report that in almost every instance where assistance was desired it was cheerfully and promptly rendered It may be that in some instances our charities have not been worthily bestowed but I can safely say that in the majority of cases they have been and I can assure you that many a heart has been made glad by our contributions and many are the blessings that have been wished us by those upon whom fortune has frowned and whose sufferings we have alleviated

During the year just closed we have expended in charities $[illegible] a far greater sum I believe than has been expended by any other charitable organ ization within the city during the same period

Although our society has at this time a greater number of active paying members than at any previous time the receipts from dues alone would have been insufficient to meet and supply the many demands for charity that have been made upon us By strict economy and careful manage ment, we have in the years gone by been able to secure and lay by a handsome reserve fund—the interest and income of which, materially aids us in dispensing our charities and keeping our ex penditures below our receipts and were it not for this it may be that in some instances we would be compelled to refuse assistance

The receipts during the past year from dues in itiation and interest upon our reserve fund, amounts in the aggregate to the sum of $3 08[illegible]

The assets of the society are as follows

Cash on hand	$5[illegible] 13
Notes bearing interest, reserve fund	10 850 00
Interest due at this time	[illegible] 10
Total	$1[illegible] 23

The assets of the society one year ago as per my last annual report was $11,3[illegible] making an in crease in our assets over the past year, after apply ing every demand made upon us for aid of $1 0[illegible] 25, quite a handsome showing, I can assure you under the circumstances

A number of our brethren not members of our society however have been sent for medical treat ment and nursing to the St Vincent's hospital during their stay I have visited there on numerous occasions, and was much pleased to observe the careful treatment and attention bestowed upon them by the sisters of that hospital. I can assure you that our brethren received as much care and attention as it was possible for any one to bestow upon them The charges at this institution are very moderate, in most cases not to exceed $8 per week for board medical treatment, nursing etc

When we cast an retrospective glance at our so ciety whose affairs in its incepiency were carried on with arduous labors though without ostenta tion and perceiving now what we have accom plished and contemplating our present flourishing condition we have cause for genuine gratification and pride for all of which we are especially thank ful to Divine Providence

I deem it a pleasant duty to publicly express our sincere thanks to Lehman Blum Esq who for the many years last past has faithfully and untiringly performed the duties of recording secretary of the society without compensation

Mr Blum has made a capable and efficient officer and to his efforts in a large degree, is due the suc cess of our society

Were we compelled to pay for such services as has been rendered by Mr Blum it would certainly not cost less than $300 a year and I feel confident his efforts are duly appreciated by you

I cannot close without tendering my grateful acknowledgements to the members of the board of trustees and the officers of the society generally for the deep interest they have manifested in the affairs of our association and the indomitable en ergy and ardor with which they have worked for the good of the society

Thanking you gentlemen one and all for your cordial co operation in performing our respective duties and for the kind manifestation of your con fidence in me by selecting me for the past four years your presiding officer I have the honor to be, your most obedient servant,

L. FLEISCHNER, President

WILLIAM TECUMSEH'S RECEPTION.

Through the courtesy of Col Wilson we have been permitted to examine the published report of inspection made in the summer of 18[illegible] by General W T Sherman in the country north of the Union Pacific railroad A copy of which has just been received from Washington It is a very neatly printed pamphlet containing 110 pages illustrated with a number of maps and several wood cuts descriptive of the country traveled by the officers It will be re membered that General Sherman continued his travels to this city while making the tour of in spection and it was that he was the recipient of a reception at the Clarendon hotel at which several thousand persons [illegible] of his visit to Portland [illegible] Sherman makes [illegible] reception [illegible]

During my absence on the Sound the citizens of Portland had arranged for a more [illegible] reception on the General's return with appropriate ceremonies [illegible] the city band [illegible] the front of the hotel where he was stopping and then formed into line accompanied by a large concourse of citizens Fireworks were exhibited and in response to urgent calls the General made a short speech which was well re ceived and then the crowd dispersed One of the most beautiful and appropriate pieces of fireworks consisted of an arch within which the word Sherman was displayed at the height of the springing lines the arch being supported on either hand by fireworks of various kinds After ward the General received until [illegible] in the parlor of the hotel, all who saw fit to call The occasion was one of much good feeling

KISSING BY BETTY

When Betty s lip I lately pressed
And stole the rapture giving kiss
The softest transports filled my brea
And all Love s cares were lost in bliss

But soon I found the pleasing theft
A sad unlucky prank had pla ed
Though honey on my lip it left
It poison to my heart conveyed

Since then bewitching girl yo : see
Thy kisses only cause me pai
Restore the one I gave to thee
And I ll give back thy kiss again
—Horace Cole

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The bell punch has succeeded the silver dollar as the national craze Nearly all the papers are demanding it

The ninetieth anniversary of the first settlement of Ohio where Marietta now stands was celebrated on the 7th April by the Pioneer Association of Cincinnati

Mr Jennings writes to the World from London that if the end of this long crisis should be war England will be found better prepared to meet it than at any previous period of her history

Possibly the country has a certain languid interest in the question whether Mr and Mrs Tilton are going to live together again but it may not be out of place to hint that there are limits to the curiosity

It is hinted that the religious press is getting a little tired of the Rev Joseph Cook too and that his sermons find less frequent and ready reproduction than formerly in it as well as secular journals

English army officers think it is easier to whip Russia now, when she is weakened by her conflict with the Turks They seem to forget she is compensated for those exertions by possession of the strategic battle ground which is worth all it has cost her

The navy department has ordered the war steamer Plymouth, full rigged carrying twelve guns, to ascend the Mississippi as far as possible next month, with a view of testing the capacity of the river at the spring flood It is expected she will be able to reach St Louis

Among the rumors prevailing in New York as to the death of Mme Restell is one to the effect that the woman was murdered through the instigation of wealthy people who patronized her in her criminal business in order to prevent disclosures which they deemed inevitable at her trial

It is estimated that the Texas cattle drive for 1878 to Nebraska and points on the Union Pacific will reach 250 000 to 260 000 head The Montana and Idaho drive will number at least 25 000 head Besides this there are en route from Oregon 50 000 head making a total of from 335,000 to 360 000 head

It is claimed that 50,000 "National votes were cast in Michigan at the late local elections The party has certainly manifested unexpected strength, and must be counted as an important factor in political calculations for the fall campaign. The 'Nationals" expect to elect two members of congress

A Discriminating Analysis.

[From the St. Paul Pioneer Press.]

A geographical, political and personal analysis of the vote by which the Pacific railroad funding bill passed the senate, furnishes a valuable basis upon which to make estimates of the public virtue of the gentlemen who are sent to the senate of the United States, to protect the interests of their countrymen, and to furnish representative examples of stern probity and devotion to principles of high morality. Geographical lines are not distinctly drawn in the vote As a matter of course, the cheap senators along the line of the road from Nebraska to Oregon are found voting with the corporations which own them, Booth of California being the only exception. Again, the looked for union of interests of the Union and Texas Pacific tempted Gordon and Hill into voting against the bill. Two or three eastern senators, who voted with the roads, like Eaton and Randolph, probably represent stock holding interests, as the trans-Mississippi votes represent localit. The rest of the negatives are the sort of senators who are popularly supposed not to be impregnable to lobby influences Politically, the distinction between the affirmative and negative votes is that between the senators of both parties who are honored and trusted by their constituents and the public, and those who are regarded with more or less frankly expressed suspicion Personally much the same distinction is to be made, the senators with reputations to risk voting with the government, under the leadership of Edmunds and Christiancy, Thurman and Bayard, those not so furnished voting with the roads and Jay Gould

Millions in the Bell-Punch

[St. Louis Globe Democrat]

We have upward of 4 000 drinking saloons in this city. Allowing the average income daily of each to be $10—a very low figure—we find the aggregate receipts to be $40 000 daily, or $13 600 000 annually. Reckoning the ratio between malt and alcoholic drinks as four to one, we would realize under the Moffat law $520 daily, or $1,898 000 annually Large as this amount is, we do not believe that it is more than half what our total receipts would be Why not try it? The bell punch is coming, as sure as fate, and we may as well recognize it Nothing can be said against it. No one need pay his taxes in this way if he doesn't want to. It would be a great benefit to our city if the load of $2,000-000 a year could be lifted from our overburdened property and placed on the consumption of liquor. Rents would be lower and the cost of living cheaper in consequence and then, perhaps, the authorities would feel that they could afford to improve our streets and settle the blinding dust We recommend this matter to the attention of our local legislature at its approaching session Give us the bell punch

Iowa Republicans on the War Path.

[From the Burlington Hawk Eye]

One year has nearly passed into history since the Iowa state Republican convention sounded the alarm against President Hayes' policy of barikari, and the call for another convention has been issued The attitude of Iowa this year will not be a question of doubt If one year ago, for the sake of harmony, for the honor of the party, for the good name of the man whom the Republicans had elected to the highest office in the land, and for the hope that the "good intentions" of the president would yet evolve good fruits not then in blossom, the Republicans restrained their convictions and simply refused to endorse no such restraint will influence the convention this year The Republicans of Iowa if unanimous upon anything, are a unit in opposition to the southern policy of the administration There will be no mental reservations in the Iowa Republican expression this year The padlock of prudence and friendly regret no longer seals their lips

The Rout of Jay Gould.

[Washington Telegram to Chicago Times]

Jay Gould is a failure as a Washington lobbyist. He made a hard fight in the senate, but the beggarly returns of being able to rally in his support only the very outcasts of the senate, has discouraged him from further effort. It is doubtful whether he will now make any attempt to delay or oppose the passage of the sinking fund bill in the house as sentiment there is very strong in its favor and particularly since its moral effect has been given by the large majority in the senate Jay Gould went home last night saying he felt as if he had neglected his wife and six children long enough A more tremendous defeat for the lobby and a greater triumph for honest legislation has rarely been known in the history of congress. Some of Gould s men say they failed because not enough money was spent They say that if Huntington and Gould had put up more money different results would have been obtained

The New North Pacific Manager

[Bismarck Letter to Chicago Tribune]

H E Sargent, the new general manager of the Northern Pacific has been putting his road in trim and adjusting rates and fares to the satisfaction of the people along the line He is evidently a master spirit and the whole force of the road recognizes it He is the man for the place It is agreed that the new town on the opposite side of the Missouri from Bismarck will be named after President Wright of the Northern Pacific It is accepted that if the line is extended, the extension will be due to his vim and diplomacy

Dr Baker has a field of wheat growing near Walla Walla having an area of two thousand acres. He will harvest 60,000 bushels from it

Financial.

TUESDAY EVENING April 1878

Gold in New York 100¼

Legal tenders in Portland—buying 9¼ selling par

Silver coin buying at per cent discount selling at 2 per cent discount

The general situation in financial matters is unchanged As far as the local market is concerned it is tolerably active and the supply of available funds ample to meet it transactions being generally made on the basis of 10 per cent per annum on first class real property security

In San Francisco at last accounts the market was reported in a sound condition with interest at moderate rates ranging from 8 to 10 per cent ... at ... per cent The ... that it is ... tions ... far as relates to the ... business

Domestic Produce

The market in this respect has changed little since our last review Wheat and flour are generally firmly held at about the quotations last given with but few transactions especially in the former of which the surplus is reported as well nigh exhausted Oats are coming forward in limited quantities and find a rather dull market the average price offered being about 40 cents per bushel Other cereals nominally unchanged and in light receipt

Potatoes continue in active demand and buyers take all that offer at $1 for common to $1 10 for choice per bushel There is still however an uncertain feeling in regard to the future course of the market which makes dealers require immediate delivery at maximum rates Provisions are steady at former quotations with a moderately active call for choice lots for the home trade Eggs have been advanced to 20 cts per dozen and are scarce for the season No other changes are noticeable

English Crops and Markets

LONDON, April 23.—The Mark Lane Express says the winter sown wheat crop looks well and the plant has recently thickened considerably, especially on highly farmed land of the home counties There was more steadiness in trade than might have been anticipated, although it was no doubt to some extent due to the presence of a large number of millers who were obliged to attend the market to make purchases which the Easter holidays would prevent their doing for a week Owing to this there was a steady retail demand at prices somewhat better than were obtainable the preceding Friday Business however was limited to the supply of immediate wants and on Wednesday trade was very dull although at the close some important political news had the effect of strengthening the views of holders Barley maize and feeding corn except beans, which again slightly favored sellers, sold slowly at rather less money but sales have not been forced on any article as the opinion still obtains that politics may at any moment exercise a hardening tendency on prices

DR. PAUL M. BRENNAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Acute Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

DR. BRENNAN has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

DR. BRENNAN will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult, with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENNAN the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN]

More Political Agitation

JACKSONVILLE, Fla April 23 —McLein secretary of state under Stearns and L G Dennis the little giant of Alachua county have made confessions in writing of frauds in 1876 by which Florida was carried for Hayes McLein's covers fully all the details in the precinct frauds which played so important a part before the returning board He says 214 names were put on the returns ... after the voting McLein s confession is said to cover all transactions before the canvassing board These confessions are in the hands of the present secretary of ... Bloxham and have been forwarded to Washington After Dennis confession 11 indictments against him for frauds in Levy and Alachua counties were nolle prosequied McLein, it is said was rewarded but how is not known

WASHINGTON Apr l 24 —Regarding the alleged confessions of McLin and Dumas of frauds in Florida in 1876, Montgomery Blair says he had information some time ago that such confessions were to be or had been made He and others were unable to conjecture where the original papers containing the confessions are to be found, if they have, as stated, been sent to Washington

Bloody Raids

SAN ANTONIO, Texas April 24 —Telegraphic reports from Lower Rio Grande indicate that about 20 persons were killed by the recent Indian raiders Nine persons are known to have been killed by raiders on the northeast border between Fort Concho and Stockton.

CORPUS CHRISTI, April 23 —Indian raids continue Many citizens are reported killed and ranches abandoned

A Piece of Buncombe.

INDIANAPOLIS April 21 —The News publishes an interview with Secretary Thompson in regard to the attempt by the Democrats to raise the question of the president s title He says there is no question to raise He thinks the Democrats only want to get some official expression on record to use for campaign purposes.

A General Storm.

CHICAGO, April 24 —Storms continue over the whole northwest and fears of great damage to the crops are anticipated

Sale of the Erie Railroad.

NEW YORK, April 24 —The Erie railroad has been sold to ex Gov E D Morgan for six million dollars

Murderers Convicted.

OMAHA, April 24 —Mrs. Nellie Waleywith was to day convicted at Sydney of murder in the second degree The trial of DuBois, her accomplice, is now in progress They together murdered a young man who was the paramour of Mrs Waleywith and who had been supplanted in her affections by DuBois Mrs Waleywith's husband is a prominent Nebraska cattle man.

Dakotans Shaken Up.

BISMARCK April 24 —There were three distinct shocks of earthquake at Glendale and the Yellowstone on the 15th. They occurred at intervals of half an hour

Roughs Roughly Used.

LOUISVILLE, April 24 —A melee between some roughs at Richmond Kentucky, and attaches of Hillyard's Pacific Circus resulted in the death of one rough and wounding of three others.

Storm at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, April 24 —The storm last night caused great destruction of stock and property. Nobody killed.

The Late William Orton.

NEW YORK, April 24 —At a meeting of New York telegraphers General Anson Stager was elected president and resolutions were adopted highly eulogistic of the late President Orton's personal, business and official character and career. Notice was given of the funeral for Thursday at 11 o'clock, when a number of distinguished citizens will act as pall bearers.

A Georgia Cyclone.

ATLANTA, Ga , April 21 —A cyclone passed over the section of the country four miles from Rome, clearing everything as it went. As far as heard from no persons were injured Trees three feet in diameter were twisted off and swept away Nine dwellings were blown down. The path of the cyclone is 300 yards wide, passing from southwest to northeast

Heavy Storm.

CLEVELAND April 24 —A heavy wind and rain storm passed over this place at 11-15 this morning. The roof of new Methodist church was blown off The casting house of the furnace was blown down Truesdell & Townsend's warehouse at their factory, was demolished, also the stack at the manufactory and the city planing mill stack Several houses and chimneys and trees wrecked in all directions

Coming to the United States for Help.

NEW YORK, April 24 —The Herald's London special correspondent at St Petersburg telegraphs that sixty five officers and masters of the Russian navy have started for the United States. In event of war with England, these officers will take command of vessels purchased in, and crews recruited from, the United States This brings the Washington government face to face with the great question of international duty towards two great nations.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Kimball's Bill has Few Friends—Grover's Opinion.

NEW YORK April 24 —The Herald's Washington special says a canvass by the Herald correspondent of the senate and house of representatives on the bill introduced by Kimmel, at the suggestion of Montgomery Blair to allow of quo warranto proceedings in the U S. supreme court to ascertain the validity of title of the incumbent of the presidency, has disclosed the fact that twenty six members of both houses oppose the scheme. Grover says I have concluded the act of congress creating the electoral commission set tled the question beyond controversy If there was a mode adopted of submitting the question to courts which would only be a review of what the commission passed upon I think it would be of no particular avail to change the result arrived at by the commission The tendency of my judgment is that the result reached by the electoral commission was a finality, and should remain so. As to the issue presented from Oregon the conclusion arrived at by the commission was not in accord ance with my judgment as executive of that state, nor is it now but I think the commission were properly authorized to review my action, and to their conclusions, I may let the decision stand But while this is so the constitution ought to be changed for no negative mandate of the constitution should stand as a dead letter The decision of the electoral commission in both the Oregon and Louisiana cases as to eligibility of federal officeholders to be appointed electors is in direct contravention of the language of the constitution

Flood of Southern Claims.

The Tribune's Washington special says the flood of bills for the payment of Southern claims seems not to have been checked by recent disclosures on this subject Of 12? bills and joint resolutions introduced in the house yesterday 37 were for payment of war claims and 28 of them were sent to the committee on war claims

Collector at New Orleans

WASHINGTON April ... The president has nominated Gen L Smith collector of customs at New Orleans

The Florida Confessions

General Withers, who contests the seat of Bisbee of the second district of Florida says the revelations ... by McLin and Dennis accord with proofs ... in support of his claim ... have not yet read ...
